February – in House Show

This will be a special event with members being invited to submit photographs in a number of classes. There will be an OPEN section for anyone who has previously won a monthly competition and a NOVICE section for anyone who has not. There will also be SPECIAL section open to all members.

Owing to space restrictions members may submit only ONE photo in each class. The max size for any print is A5,15x21cm (8x6in)/. Since members can enter classes on either the Open or Novice Sections and the Special Section, any single member may enter up to 14 classes in total.

RULES:

- Members can enter as few or as many classes as they want in the appropriate sections. There will be points awarded in each class.
- Members may enter up to ONE photo in each of the classes for the sections which they are eligible (Open or Novice).
- A novice shall be any person who has not won the novice section in the monthly competitions prior to December 2009.
- The maximum size for any entry is A5,15x21cm (8x6in).
- Photographs may be in black and white or colour unless otherwise stated.
- All photos to be un-mounted and unframed, except for class N02 where the three photos must be mounted on card or paper no larger than A3.
- The front of all photographs must be unmarked and free from signatures captions and any other writing, except for class N07 which must have a caption written on or attached to the photograph.
- The back of all photos must be marked with the Member's name and the class for which the photo is entered.
- Photographs that have previously been entered in monthly competitions may be entered.
- All entries must be placed in a sealed envelope and handed to Mick, Lisa or Jean, at or prior, to the meeting on Wed 18th February. NO LATE ENTRIES as the competition will be externally judged prior to the next meeting.
- An external judge will judge the entries prior to the meeting on 25th February. No one other than the designated stewards will be allowed into the hall on 25th Feb until judging is complete.
